Office of the Director
Washington, DC 20905

Dear William:

I am delighted to advise you of an outstanding program honoring one of our country's leading men [redacted] We all know that for three generations now, [redacted] has been a symbol to our Nation and the world of the traditions and values that make America great.

STAT
STAT

It is only fitting that a most prestigious organization, The National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame, has chosen to honor [redacted] with the presentation of its Distinguished American Award at a gala dinner on November 17th, 1983, at the Century Plaza Hotel in Los Angeles.

STAT

We are pleased that the President, Ronald W. Reagan, graciously has agreed to serve as the Honorary Chairman for this Tribute to [redacted] is the Corporate Co-Chairman of our Committee. This Tribute promises to be an exceptional evening in honor of a truly great man.

STAT

I am honored to be serving as the Entertainment Co-Chairman for this event as testimony to my great respect for [redacted] Your participation with other national leaders and myself as one of our Vice-Chairmen would please me greatly and surely be most gratifying to our Guest of Honor. I personally encourage and welcome your participation.

STAT

It is my pleasure to invite you to join with [redacted] other members of the Committee, and myself, at the Cocktail Reception I am hosting with [redacted] on Monday, June 27th, 1983, in the Main Dining Room of the Bel-Air Country Club at 5:00 p.m.

STAT
STAT

Please return the enclosed card to me so that I may add your name to this most distinguished Committee and know that you will be joining us at our Bel-Air Reception as we formulate our plans for this tribute to [redacted]

STAT

With my deep appreciation to you for favoring us with your participation in this memorable Tribute, I look forward to hearing from you and personally greeting you at our reception.

Sincerely,

STAT
